Tae Kwon Do Is A Way Of Life

1. Please define Humility in your own words explain its importance in life, especially in Tae Kwon Do.
2. What is your next short-term and long-term goal in Tae Kwon Do, and how do you plan on achieving it?
3. How would you like to show your appreciation to your parents and members of your immediate family?
4. How would you like to show your appreciation to your master and the Do Jahng?
5. Why do you continue to train in Tae Kwon Do?
6. After this exam, pass or fail, what will you do?
7. Loyalty! What does it mean to you and why?

Essay for Final Black Belt Exam:

Your Black Belt exam essay must be a minimum of 1000 words on the topic: Humility, Honor & Loyalty. The 1000 words should be on the topic itself; "thank you" paragraphs, which you are welcome but not expected to include at the end of your essay, do not count toward the total word count.

Your essay must be submitted in one of these ways:

1. Copy the text of your essay and post to the Lee Brothers Tae Kwon Do members only facebook group (NOT our public page, our "closed" group). If you're not a member of the group already, you'll need to ask permission to join (search Lee Brothers Tae Kwon Do group or use the direct link on our member website).

OR

2. Email a digital copy of your essay to friends@leebrothers.com. We will post the essay to our closed facebook group on your behalf.

Music:

Background music is required during all Hoshinsool / Knife / Creative Form routines. If you want particular music, you need to provide a downloadable file (email it or bring it on a flash drive). We will play some appropriate background music for anyone who has not provided an audio file.
